

Any violation of the _____ should be reported to the Dean of Students, where it may be addressed pursuant to the University of Southern Mississippi Student Code of Conduct. Violations may be deferred to the judicial bodies of the Interfraternity Council (IFC), College Panhellenic Council (CPC), or National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC).

Any individual or organization found to be in violation of these guidelines, or other policies governing student conduct, may be subject to all disciplinary provisions of the University of Southern Mississippi Student Code of Conduct and may be subject to separate criminal and/or civil liability.

In addition to disciplinary action by the University, individuals and organizations may also be subject to disciplinary action of local or inter/national groups.
